

The Fertiliser Association of India, New Delhi

Vacancy in the Department of Agriculture Sciences

Applications are invited for the post of Consultant (Agricultural Sciences) on contractual basis from the qualified professionals to guide and assist the activities of the Department. The activities inter-alia include the following:

- Editing and processing of articles for Indian Journal of Fertilisers, Khad Patrika (Hindi)
- Work related to FAI Annual Seminar – Selection of topics and speakers
- Updation of Handbook on Fertiliser Usage, and FCO, 1985 (English and Hindi), and also to bring out other publications related to Agriculture and Fertilizer Usage.
- Organisation of training programmes, workshops, group discussion, certificate courses, etc.
- Work in connection with FAI Awards on different vital areas of agriculture and fertiliser use.
- Keep abreast with the latest development in the field of agriculture related to fertilizer usage.
- Maintaining proper liaison with the fertilizer companies, ICAR institutes, agricultural universities, central and state governments.
- Work as signed by DG, FAI from time to time.

Candidates should be Ph.D. in Soil Science/Agronomy from the reputed University/Institute. Recently retired professionals from Agricultural University/ICAR Institute will be preferred. Suitable compensation will be offered. Please send your CV through email to dg@faidelhi.org urgently.